

It's not okay for youth to drink!

Parents can help keep their kids safe from alcohol by:

- Talking early and often with their kids.
- Explaining why alcohol is not good for their health.
- Making sure they know it's against the law for anyone under age 21 to drink.

Kids need to know their parents expectations!